

CVCS Mission Statement

CVCS offers a rigorous academic program designed to meet the individual needs of each student. CVCS will promote leadership, civic responsibility, and environmental awareness. Through community engagement, CVCS students will understand their effects on the world around them. The School offers the community a parent-driven public school choice in which teachers, students, and parents are partners.

Silent Auction/Raffle Fundraiser

Many of you know Rocio Gonzales, the very important person at CVCS who serves lunch to hungry children, keeps the buildings clean, and always has an ice pack ready for a playground injury. Rocio has been at CVCS for seven years, and we are greatly missing her while she helps nurse her husband back to health after a serious car accident last Monday evening. We are raising money for her family to help with medical expenses in this time of need.

We have collected many exciting items that will be raffled off, including the one item MANY CVCS STUDENTS HAVE ASKED TO BUY: the GIANT STUFFED HORSE in the library that was so generously donated by Wells Fargo Bank two years ago.

Come see the items (toys, jewelry, Scentsy Bear, Jamberry nails, Lego book, food gift cards, and more!) in the library beginning Monday afternoon. Buy raffle tickets from Jill, $1.00 each, and "bid" on items that you would like to win. Each item will have it's own raffle, and the winning ticket for each item will be drawn on Monday, November 11 at 9:00am.

You may also make a cash donation, if you would like. Thank you!!!

Come view the items each day 8:00am-4:00pm!

Report Cards Went Home Last Friday

Your child should have brought home a report card last Friday. If you did not receive one or have a question about the lunch bill or overdue book notice, please call Jill. You may return books and pay lunch bills in the library and pick up your child's report card. Thank you!

The 8th grade is collecting canned goods for the Socorro Storehouse. You may drop the food off in the box in the library.

Pie Social and Used Book Sale

K-5 students and parents are invited to join the teachers at CVCS when they present

Readers Raise the Roof* on Wednesday, November 20 from 6pm-7pm.

This is an interactive program that will provide parents with reading activities to help their children at home.

Please bring a pie to share after the program!

We need your gently used books that you are no longer reading!

Please drop them by the library.

Thank you!
